Membership-

As a cabin owner you are encouraged to join the Rimrock Cabin Owners' Association (RCOA). It's a great way to stay informed on a variety of issues that could impact on the enjoyment you derive from owning your cabin. Whether there are changes in rules by the Forest Service or other government agencies, our goal is to help keep you informed. By joining RCOA you automatically become a member of the Washington State Forest Homeowners' Association (WSFHA) and the National Forest Homeowners (NFH), all 3 networks work together to carry our voice to the halls of Congress and to keep us informed on issues at the state and national levels. It really is a great way to give us a voice in both Washingtons! This support is especially important right now as the Cabin Program Restoration Act is being discussed. This act will restore, protect and respect the rights of permit holders.

NFH has been working through congress CPRA- Cabin Program Restoration Act) to carefully develop language that will restore cabin owner rights and protect the longevity of the Forest Service Recreation Residence Program. We as cabin owners and members of the NFH have been asked to donate to the lobbying cause for the CPRA. RCOA board members discussed and voted to contribute this first donation to this cause from the cabin defense funds

We will further discuss this important topic at the RCOA annual meeting.

Please consider making an individual donation to the RCOA Cabin Defense Fund. To assist in the effort to restore cabin owner rights and preserve the cabin program. # Presidents Note

Diana L Frampton

I hope this newsletter finds you all healthy and enjoying your cabins. Some cabins have been handed down through generations. Some of you are in your first year of owning a cabin. It's a place to relax, enjoy time with family and friends, show pride of ownership and spend time and celebrate the great outdoors. To me it's pulling off the highway onto the gravel road leading to the cabin and my whole body goes, "Ahhh".

Why do I volunteer to be your president? I love our cabin and the outdoors. I want to be able to protect and support the protection of ownership and the use of the cabins we own. I do this through communication with cabin owners, local, state, regional and national forest agencies and associations.

Please, reach out with any questions, concerns or assistance needed.

I encourage you to volunteer and get involved in our association.

Thank you all for your support of RCOA.

Mission Statement
